THE NEW BOOKS ARE HERE!

In the last two newsletters, we notified you of several new titles that were at the printer. We are happy to inform you that they have all arrived.

NEW PRODUCTS

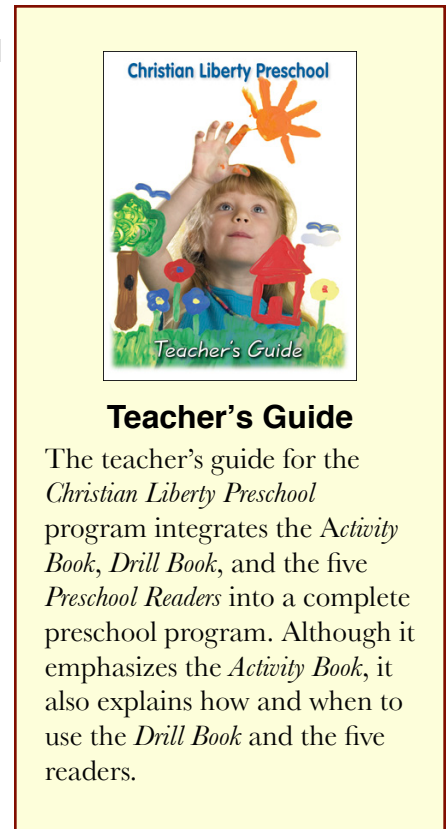

Exploring American History

We recently received the Second Edition of Exploring American History. The February issue of the CLP Review provided you with information about the new edition of this fifth-grade history book. Now we can send you samples of the textbook, teacher's manual, and test packet. You will find this new edition to be a significant improvement over the original edition.

Preschool Curriculum

In the January CLP Review, we introduced our new preschool curriculum. This curriculum consists of a workbook, a drill book, a teacher's guide, five small readers, and a supplemental read-to book. We published the primary component—the Christian Liberty Preschool Activity Book—in 2008; and the read-to book entitled Trottino's Tale in 2007. In March of this year, the rest of the curriculum titles arrived and are now available for sale. You have already received samples of the Activity Book and Trottino's Tale; now we are enclosing copies of the rest of the preschool books. We are confident that your customers will find this entire curriculum very appealing.

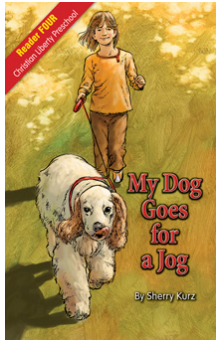

Teacher's Guide

The teacher's guide for the Christian Liberty Preschool program integrates the Activity Book, Drill Book, and the five Preschool Readers into a complete preschool program. Although it emphasizes the Activity Book, it also explains how and when to use the Drill Book and the five readers.

Christian Liberty Preschool Readers

The set of five Christian Liberty Preschool Readers are now available for purchase. Each 8-page reader includes colorful illustrations, has a helpful introduction to parents and teachers, and emphasizes a different vowel sound.

Your discount will be available on a per reader basis. However, you may want to offer them to your customers as a set. Our preschool program assumes that all five books will be used by preschoolers.
