NEW for 2019

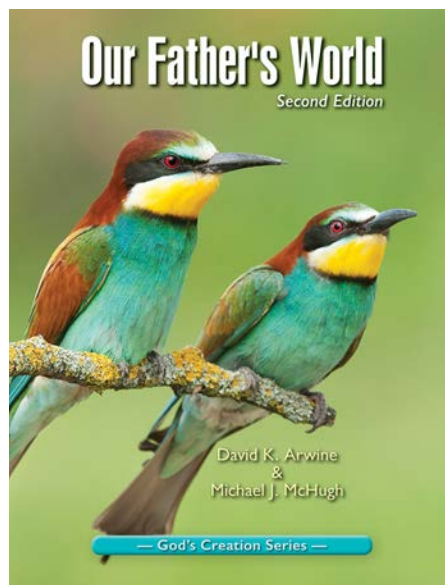

We have begun the release of new editions of our elementary science series. We are pleased to announce that new editions of The World God Made and Our Father's World are now available.

ELEMENTARY SCIENCE UPDATES

We are in the midst of a multi-year process of revising our God's Creation elementary science series. We are releasing the first two books in the series this year: The World God Made (kindergarten) and Our Father's World (1st grade). We have replaced many of the images in these books, as well as made text corrections and improvements in the various course materials. The rest of the series will be published over the next couple of years.

See the next page for details about these updated items. We have included samples of each of these second edition materials for your review.

Product Catalog 2019

We have recently completed the 2019 Product Catalog, and it is currently at the printer. If you would like to take a look at it now, you can download a PDF copy from the Distributors and Schools & Churches tabs on our website.

We will be sending out a copy of this catalog to our U.S. customers soon. If you do not get a copy, please let us know and we will send you one.
