We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION for the United States of America.

Article

SECTION 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.
SECTION 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year from the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch in the State.
No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years and seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.
Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians, not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons. The actual Enumeration shall be made every third Year, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but New Hampshire shall be entitled to one Representative, New York five, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware three, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, and Georgia three.
The Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch in the State. They shall meet in one or more Cities, which one of them shall be deemed the City for that Purpose, and they shall choose in each State one or more Persons, whose Names are written on Certificates to be signed by the Electors, to fill such Offices.
